

CALIBRATING HEART & MIND

Calibrating heart and mind seeking out the order, feeding, breathing Intuition intertwined, feeling for a border, reconvening

Information open wide, growing, getting older, tales repeating Settle down and pick a side, safely in a corner, time receding

I know you've done it all before There's nothing new for me in store Ideas tangled in your head

*Some things are better left unsaid
Standing in one place
May as well be moving back*

*Standing in one place
Brings out everything you lack*

It's time to walk Separating yours from mine, natural disorder, trial completing

*Celibate till you found wine, bridges burning colder,
time is bleeding Emancipation growing strong*

*So who will tell you right from wrong?
There is no reason to be scared
You know that simple needs are shared*

*Standing in one place
May as well be moving back
Standing in one place
Brings out everything you lack
It's time to walk
calibrate heart and mind*
